TRIBE TEAM TRAINING Q & A

How long is the TRIBE season? Each season is eight weeks in length with your first week free. There are six seasons per year.

How many sessions can I attend each week? You can attend 2 sessions per week with your assigned team for a total of 16 sessions per season. For example, Monday/Wednesday 5:30pm TribeLIFE OR T/Th 12:00pm FIT/LIFE Combo will be your designated team and you will be lead by the same TRIBE coach throughout the season. If you sign up for 1-day TribeCORE, you will attend 1 session per week with your assigned team for a total of 8 sessions per season. Make-up sessions are held every Saturday at 9am for all formats.

Can I drop in to other teams during the season? You are enrolled only on the team that you choose for that season. However, if you are unable to make it to your regular session time, a drop-in to another session may be approved by your Coach.
